

ROMAN CANDLER 73.

The Journal of the Bearly Made It Skydive Squad. The International Brother and Sisterhood of Parachuting Fauna and the U.K. Ted Devils. Politically Incorrect and definitely not up our own fundamental, all we give you is 100% Mindless Drivel, but then, you already knew that.

The teddy bear's days are numbered

WHOOA, HOLD YOUR HORSES ALL YOUZ R.C.HATERS, BEFORE YOU START HOLLERING "ABOUT TIME"

THE DAYS ARE NUMBERED BIT ONLY APPLIES TO POOR OLD MOTH EATEN AND DECREIPIT ERIC HERE.

Fair do's you would look a bit knackered if you was one year short of the ton, anyway poor old Eric is facing eviction along with an amazing collection of Victorian toys and Chinese dolls made of donkey skin. Eric is a resident of the famous Pollock's Toy Museum in London and unfortunately the museum has come to the end of its 30 year lease in the shadow of centrepoint and is faced with finding upwards of half a million squids for a new lease:

'Arfa mill aint a lot if you say it quick, but in reality the museum is sweating a bit. They have engaged an agency to try and drum up the dosh i.e. they are on the scrounge, hoping that some kind person or company would be willing to make a donation. "He's already lost an ear, don't let him lose his home" the ad says, a tragedy if the museum disappears, blah,blah,blah. Some hard hearted city types think a more robust sort of advert would do better, something along the lines of. "COUGH UP OR THE BEAR GETS IT" (hows that for an insult, "oi, donkey skin" makes a change from "oi dog breath"

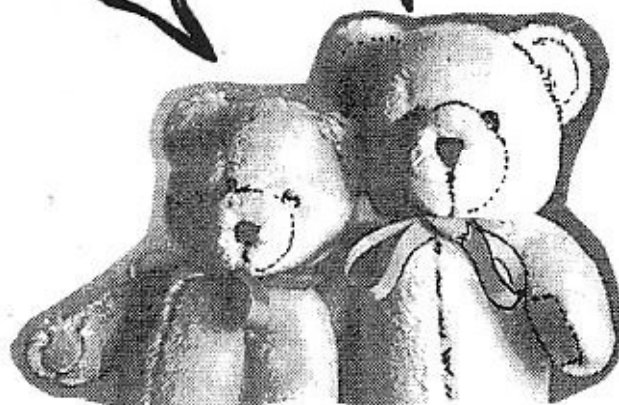

Barred from children's ward

JUST WHY A BUILDING SOCIETY WOULD HAVE A COLLECTION OF TEDDY BEARS IS SOMETHING OF A MYSTERY, BUT THEY DO HAVE 'EM.

Leeds and Holbeck is rebranding and decided to dispense with their collection of Teds. What to do with them? too good to throw away Hey, offer them to the childrens ward at Leeds General Infirmary, but alas those poor Teds have fallen victim to todays most fashionable disease, health and safety fascism. "Ve cannot accept these Bears 'cos of the risk of infection "

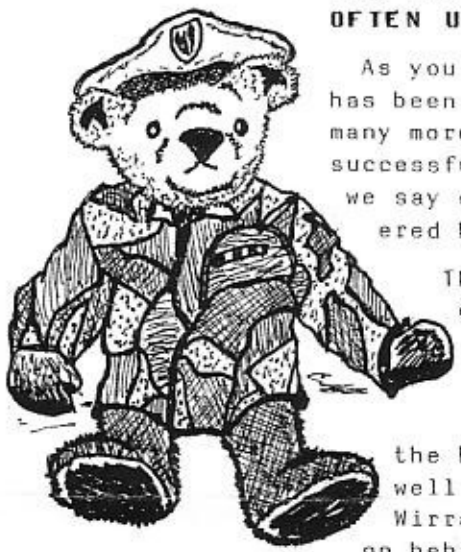

The PR for the building society was most taken aback upon hearing the refusal. The Bears have been sitting in a box in our office and we're not infectious, he said.

There you go, no wonder the NHS is in such a shambles. But of course nowadays you go to Hospital to catch a disease, not the other way round.....

THE ALLIED SPECIAL FORCES ASSOCIATION

THERES A NAME TO CONJURE WITH. THE ASFA IS DEDICATED TO THE RECOGNITION AND PRESERVATION OF THE OPERATIONS CARRIED OUT BY THE OFTEN UNSUNG HEROES OF THE VARIOUS ALLIED SPICAL FORCES.

As you are no doubt aware for every special forces operation that has been well pulicised and and has passed into folklore, there were many more that are to this day pretty well unknown. some were very successful, others were, to put it blunly, expensive failures. When we say expensive, we actually mean in terms of the casualties suffered by lots of of largely unsung heroes.

The ASFA is also trying to raise funds for a permanent and dedicated memorial to those unknown hereos.

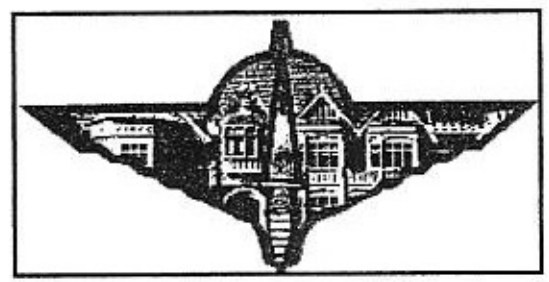

Bear Squadron

What, you may ask is the connection between the ASFA and Parachuting furry whatnots. Yes, you've guessed it, its the Bear Squadron. It seems that the BMISS aint the the only mob well into stuffing the jolly old rag. the Bear Squadron on the Wirral, to give it, its full title, is dedicated to fund raising on behalf of the ASFA and Monty, pictured left, a member of their Dorset troop(watch out, thats an SAS beret he's wearing) is on permanent guard duty at the ASFA offices, which it is alledged he parachuted into, though we dont think he did it from a Kite.

"Chutes and Daggers"

MANY OF THE SPECIAL FORCES OPERATIONS WERE THE RESULT OF THE CODEBREAKERS WHO WORKED UNDER THE UTMOST SECRECY AT THE FAMOUS STATION X, AT BLETCHLEY PARK

Its now common knowledge that the team at station X, under the legendry Alan Turing and using eaily computers were responsible for shortening WWII by at least 3 years when they broke the German Enigma and Ultra code systems. Truly a Chute and Daggers and Codes connection

BABBAGED?.... www.alliedspecialforcec.org & www.specialforces.co.uk & www.bearsquadron.org.uk/

who is sindie (boogeredifweknow) HOWEVER THE ERSTWHILE SINDIE IS DOING IMPORTANT RESEARCH INTO THE WELL KNOWN AILMENT "BEAR MAKERS BUM"

Sindie says" Myresearch has a long way to go, however I have discovered some intresting facts.

1. If you hold your food higher than your mouth. all the calories jump out before you can consume them.
2. Leng, thin foods i.e. chocolate fingers, sausages, Kitkat, Niknak crisps, spaghetti Bolognese etc maintain their form when you eat them so you will become long and thin too.
3. Ring doughnuts, coconut ring biscuits and bagels have lo fat centres so are okay to eat.
4. Anything with lots of air in it is lo fat also, i.e. Aero, chocolate mousse, Wispa etc.
5. Avoid anything round(see No2) such as apples, tomatoes, ricecakes, grapefruit, pickled onions etc.

This is very intresting, but even with the current hoo haa about obesity, this is actually uncommon. What you most likely are is nothing more than " A FAT BARSTEWARD" sod all this politically correct mumbo jumbo, its no more s,m,l, its xxl, fb1, fb2,fb3 and'kin ada Any bigger, then its rent a tent, pass them chocolate fingers.....

Skydiver unstrapped parachute at 9,000ft

THE WAYS OF THE HUMES ARE PRETTY MUCH BEYOND THE KEN OF THE AVERAGE PARACHUTING FAUNA IT SEEMS THAT SUICIDE BY PARACHUTE IS ANOTHER METHOD OF EXITING THIS LIFE. SHOCKING BUT THEN WHAT SUICIDE IS'NT?

A Skydiver who recently plunged to his death did actually unstrap his chute in midair during a National Skydiving competition. Eye witnesses said there was no doubt about it, he did commit suicide.

Alistair McLaren was said to be a highly experienced Skydiver who had completed almost a thousand jumps, he was also a parachute instructor. He had jumped with fourteen other skydivers from a Dornier aircraft aboard which he had left his mobile phone, this was alleged to contain "suicide text messages". Mr McLaren was believed to be have broken up with his wife and a young student with whom he had been having a relationship, though whether or not this had played any part in his decision to end it all, is not clear. A Police spokesman said they are not treating his death as suspicious.

The somewhat bizarre death of Mr M. comes after the equally bizarre death by parachute of Stephen Hilder last year. After believing that this was a murder and going so far as to arrest some of Mr Hilder's friends in connection with the incident, Police are now almost 100% certain that Mr Hilder committed suicide. DNA and forensic evidence seem to point in this direction. We know full well that us furry wotsits are doing the old "stuff the rag" bit strictly for laughs, any accidental hume deaths by parachute are a tragedy for all concerned, but it is truly beyond our ken to think that some humes are killing themselves by parachute on purpose.

The somewhat bizarre death of Mr M. comes after the equally bizarre death by parachute of Stephen Hilder last year. After believing that this was a murder and going so far as to arrest some of Mr Hilder's friends in connection with the incident, Police are now almost 100% certain that Mr Hilder committed suicide. DNA and forensic evidence seem to point in this direction. We know full well that us furry wotsits are doing the old "stuff the rag" bit strictly for laughs, any accidental hume deaths by parachute are a tragedy for all concerned, but it is truly beyond our ken to think that some humes are killing themselves by parachute on purpose.

Bad medicine?

BEAR EATS CRUEL OWNER

TASTY, BUT PITY THERE WAS NO BROWN SAUCE

HERE'S A TALE FROM DEEPEST DARKEST CENTRAL RUSSIA, THAT FAIRLY WARMS THE COCKLES OF YOUR HEART, YIPEE, GETTING YOUR COME UP PANCE DONT COME MUCH BETTER THAN THIS.

A cruel hunter was killed and eaten by his pet Bear after he abused and taunted it for months, Boo. Hiss..

Vladimir Mamontov kept the bear, called Horatio, chained up outside his house in Tambov, central Russia. This specimen constantly mistreated the bear whilst supposedly practising his hunting and stalking skills as he endeavoured to win Russia's top hunting award, the title of "Distinguished Huntsman"

Horatio, finally decided that enough was enough and he grabbed his tormentor, gave him a right pasting and finally to put the cherry on top of the icing, he ate him.

A Police spokesman said, "Mamontov had given the bear a long term hard time, keeping it chained and gauging its reactions to his stalking methods. This was some kind of divine retribution, he went to feed the bear and it decided that he was lunch". Funnily enough Mamontov was guest of honour at the Tambov Regional Hunting Society's 115th anniversary bash recently, but the Bear had the last laugh.

Once bitten... or pecked

Kite population soaring

SCARY OR WHAT...GANGBANGING ANTI TED KITES IN BUCKS RAMPAGE, OO'ER MISSUS, WHAT WE GOT? CLANDESTINE KITE FESTS,WHAT ARE THEY?DELTAS?...CONYNES?, OR GAWD FORBID,RED WOGLAM PARA KITES. IF SOME WAG SHOUTS OUT THAT TEY'RE EAST GERMAN RED ROLLERS, WE'RE OUT OF HERE.

CAN'T GET IT OUT OF MY HEAD

said that they were turd skinning a bit as they were only charging 50p a drop and they were having a competition, the winner being the Bear who drifted the furthest.

Tony also said that someone was planning to drop parafauna from inside a Liverpool cathedral. Liverpool has two, both huge, a good inside height but which one was it, the orange or the green?

STEVE BILLINGS SENT US THE BIT ABOUT THE TEDS USING OR CONSUMING SPAM, IT COMES FROM COMPUTING. AS WE ARE COMPUTER ILLITERATE ITS ALL GREEK TO US, BUT THERE YOU GO.

SPAM, we thought was a tasty luncheon meat, but not these days, SPAM today dont come in tins anymore, it seems that it comes through the internut and uses all the ink up in ya printer as well as costing you an arm and a leg in paper. Aint life grand.

So, as ever its the usual to the whatnot c/o The Boring Old Fart at the Teddytorial.48. Laurel Lane, West Drayton, UB7.7TY. In what forever will be ENGLAND no matter what the Traitors, running dogs and fellow travellers have planned. Ahem, how many years is it since those awfully nice Eurocrats have posted a set of accounts, Nine is it?.....

DAVE HUGHES THINKS THAT THE CHILTERNERS ARE IN DANGER OF BECOMING A NO GO AREA FOR TEDDY BEARS AND OTHERS OF THAT ILK, IF RECENT LETTERS TO THE GRAUNIAD ARE ANYTHING TO GO BY.

Whilst its highly commendable that the population of Red Kites is showing a marked increase since the reintroduction of Spanish birds between 1989 and 1994, it does not auger too well for the furies. Sir, Red Kites may be seen patrolling as far south as Marlow. They have a reputation locally for removing Teddy Bears and other soft toys left unattended on lawns. Fred Cairns, Bourne End.

Sir, We've been trying to keep these Red Kites a secret since their release near Stokenchurch about 15 years ago. It seems someone has noticed, however, Oh well, good whilst it lasted. S Kibble, Berkhamstead, Herts. Sir, Red Kites are familiar to anyone who travels along the M40 between junctions 4 and 8, keeping an eye on the sky. My personal record was 21 kites spotted during one journey. perhaps I should add that I was'nt in the drivers seat. Stephie Coane, Harrow, Middx.

THEY SAID IT WOULD NEVER HAPPEN, BUT IT HAS AND ITS ENOUGH TO GIVE YOU A TOUCH OF THE Screaming abdabs.

Monsewer Tony Slater informs us that a recent edition of the Archers, the longest running Radio soap in the world featured Teds parachuting from the tower of the local church in aid of some charity. So the everyday story of country folk, ahem, weirdos has caught up with reality. mind you, Tony

Spam's no picnic for teddy bears

Many more of you have been reading your random word spam, thanks to our helpful intervention.

'I'm more intrigued by the supposed authors of such messages - my latest correspondents include Rossario Biggs, Sadie Blankenship, Paige Yazzie, Trinidad Busby and Cyrus Solis,' says John Carr, at Waddington Labels.

'More disconcerting are emails from Robert Wiseman, whose black and white milk lorries I often pass on the motorway, and Teddy James, a bear who was my daughter's inseparable companion when she was small.'

Has anyone else had spam from their teddy bear? Or from themselves? Or John Carr?